*ONLINE		Anytime within finals week	Saturday May 4 – Friday, May 10

- One day per week classes: Any class meeting for only one day per week shall administer a final exam during the LAST class period occurring during the week of May 6-10.
- Mulvane classes: The final is given the last class period on one-day or two-day a week classes. Three-day and four-day classes will follow the above schedule and will be communicated to students by the instructor. (ITV classes will follow the above schedule unless communicated/scheduled differently by the instructor.)
- Time conflict: In the event a student has more than one final exam scheduled at the same time, the student and instructors will work out a mutual time to administer the final exam for each class.
- Online Classes: The instructor will announce the final exam schedule occurring during the period of May 4-10. Some online classes (like Math) may require a face-to-face proctored final, which may occur outside of these dates. NOTE: Last day for most online classes is Friday, MAY 10. Online classes with end dates after May 10 should outline and communicate the final date in the syllabus and schedule it within the last week of the course end date.
