Background

Any co-educational institutions of postsecondary education that participate in Title IV (Federal Student Financial Assistance Program) and have intercollegiate athletics are required by The EADA to prepare a yearly report to the U.S. Department of Education. The report includes athletic participation, staffing, and revenues and expenses by men's, women's, and coed athletic teams. The U.S. Department of Education uses this information when they prepare the gender equity in intercollegiate athletics report for Congress.
